Living in the household of Peder Christian Andersen and Else Marie Madsdatter in 1850, in addition to their 1 year old son Anders (Andrew), were Morten Nielsen (age 43); Morten's wife Inger Larsdatter (age 46), and the widow Johanne Marie Pedersdatter (age 83). Morten and Inger were married 9 April 1833 in Jetsmark, Hjorring, Denmark; Morten is believed to be the son of Niels Pedersen, and was christened on 8 November, 1897, in Jetsmark, Hjorring, Denmark. In the DDD 1834 Census, Morten, Inger, and the widow Johanne Marie Pedersdatter were living in the same household in Blokhuus, Hune, Hvetbo, Hjorring, Denmark. granddaughter): A few days ago -- on the fourth of July -- Per Jaeger died. (The last name, Jaeger, mean hunter.) He was the oldest veteran of "The Danish Emergency Rescue Organization." Along the Danish west coast are three very dangerous sand bars. Often, ships get too close to the coast, are caught by the strong current, and stranded on the third bar. They have no chance of getting away from there and the waves are so strong that, in a very short time, they destroy the ship. The people are torn away by the current and drowned. In 1852 the organization was established. There is a "Rescue Department" in every little village along the west coast. I -- from the closest village, of all ages and occupations -- will, in case of an emergency, try to get over the first and the second sand bars in a big, special rowboat and save people from the stranded ship. This is a very dangerous action but the only way possible to save the people. Often the rescue boat is turned over by the enormous waves and all the crew drown. Even in our time when they use motor boats, this job is so hard and dangerous that it takes very strong and brave men. Per Jaeger was head of the rescue boat in the little harbor town, Blokhus. (Blokhus means lock-cabin.) For the courage he showed in his work he received a "Dannebrog order" from the king and was then a "Man of Dannebrog." (Dannebrog is the name of the Danish Flag.) His name was Per Christian Andersen, but he was always called Per Jaeger. He was born in Blokhus on the first of April, 1825, as a son of a small farmer. His father got the nick name of Jaeger because during the war with England, he was a soldier in the Green Hunters Guard that protected the west coast. From this he got his last name, not from a former punishment as an illegal hunter in the forests as the author Goldschmidt made people believe when he wrote the short story, "The Echo." This told of a man whose life story was just like Per Jaeger's fathers. In his younger days, Per Jaeger was a fisherman, but when "The Danish Emergency Rescue Organization" was established in 1852 he became employed as "Boat Man" at the department in Blokhus and worked there for forty years. He was with the group that saved ten men from the English ship "Tagus" that stranded in a heavy storm and sank at Tranum the first of August, 1853. April the twenty-eighth of the next year he was in the group that, after several unsuccessful tries, finally saved the only surviving man from the English ship "Railway King" that also stranded at Tranum. One of these times Per Jaeger steered the boat, because the man that was supposed to do it lost courage at the last moment. Later a medal for bravery was awarded to the man at the wheel and a little money gift for the rowers. But the cowardly man at the wheel gladly accepted the medal, though Per Jaeger was the one who did the deed. He had to accept the local people's prize and a couple of dollars. In those years many ships were stranded, and last summer when I visited the honorable old man, he still could express himself warmly about the exciting happenings on the beach in old times. He had an outstanding memory, and his stories almost had life. It was a pleasure to hear him tell about happenings of the past in the Blokhus area. He could even tell them from back in 1770 as his parent's and grandparent's stories were printed clearly in his memory. They must have been correct, as I found them just like the facts of the world history when I compared afterwards. He had a unique ability to make his stories seem alive and would tell of the dynamic days of the "Slave War" in 1848. He, with many other men, fought on the side of "The Old Lady of the Big Farm in the Sand Dunes" who led the soldiers herself instead of the slave master. His own memories went back to about 1830. He could remember the great grocer Mogens Brix in Blokhus (who died in 1831) and he could remember the stranding of the frigate "Preciosas" in 1835 at the sandbar called Pirups Hvarre. And of course he could remember all happenings starting then in the Blokhus area. In the night between the thirtieth and thirty-first of December 1859, he became head of the rescue boat when the Swedish ship "Carl" stranded. He was head of the Blokhus rescue boat until 1902 when he retired from the service because of age. Some extremely complicated rescue actions in his time were the English ship "Neptune's" stranding September 12, 1863, when twelve men were saved after much trouble. The Norwegian ship, "The Three Friends," stranded January 7, 1882. After eight hours of inhuman effort in the hurricane they finally saved eight persons from the wreck. On that occasion the crew got an award from the government for hero deeds of a few dollars each, but the Norwegian consulate ignored the whole happening. Another case that was very clear in his memory was the rescue boat drill of December 29, 1856. On the way back to the shore the bow of the boat ran into the sandbar, the stern was thrown up in the air, and the boat turned over. Eleven members of the crew succeeded in swimming back to the shore. One of them was Per Jaeger, but the other five were torn away by the strong current and drowned. Among them was his father-in-law,

Mads Christian Andersen, or Giant Mads as he was called. After this tragic accident, a new precautionary measure was used at rescue boat drills. Not only was Per Jaeger head of the boat, he was also the first man in the fishing organization. At this time rich loads of flounder were brought to the Blokhus harbor and unloaded or reloaded under his command. When he told stories of the "Great Times of the West Coast," of which he was the last one to remember, he did not hide that life was very rugged. Heavy brandy drinking went on both during and after work. It still made him shake his head when he thought of it, but he was very happy that he, in the later years, had seen an enormous cultural improvement in Blokhus. Tall, with broad shoulders and long beard, he had a very handsome and strict appearance. Still, he always had a mild look in his brown eyes that was contrary to his enormous voice which sounded louder than storm and ocean when he gave his orders at the beach. This is how the old hero stands in my memory. And now that he is not on earth anymore I would like to thank him for all that he has been to me personally. And for my family whose whole existence depended on him during the dangerous rescue actions. We owe him so very much because he, so often at the risk of his own life, saved other peoples lives -- not to gain personal glory -- but of love and duty to his neighbor man. May 13, 1849, Per Jaeger married Else Marie, daughter of Mads the Giant. In 1909 they celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary, and a few years later Else Marie died. Since that time Per Jaeger lived with his son and daughter-in-law in Kryle where he died at the age of 98. His last years were filled with love and kindness from his family. From the house he had a tremendous view over the sand dunes and the ocean -- the place of his deeds -- the place he loved.

Burial: 20 Jul 1935 in Mahon Cemetery, Gilmore, Effingham County, IL

Notes for Andrew Peterson:

FAGM #100497817, with tombstone picture -- Spelling of last name changed upon immigrating to the US with the name originally recorded as Pedersen and also spelled as Petersen. Ultimately, the tombstone for Andrew is spelled Peterson. According to a newspaper clipping regarding Andrew's and Dora's trip back to Denmark in 1913, "...[j]ust forty-four years ago Mr. Peterson left [Denmark] and came to this country. He sailed from Copenhagen on Octo 1st and landed in Quebec, Canada, two weeks later. From there he went direct to Chicago and then down on the Illinois Central to Effingham. From here he went to Gilmore and joined the Danish settlement at that place. Mr. Peterson is the last of that settlement in the Gilmore neighborhood." From handwritten notes made by Dora (Peterson) Trapp/Martin, daughter, Andrew came to America through New York, then went to Michigan where he worked at various jobs until 1871. In 1871 he came to Effingham county, settling in West Township with the Johnson family, whom he knew from his early days in Denmark, and later married Sena Johnson who was 10 years younger. He lived there and farmed until his death. At some point, "Pedersen" was changed to "Peterson" while in America. According to a handwritten note of daughter Dora Martin, "it was the custom in those days that a man's [sons] took the name of their father's first name. Hence, Peder (or Peter in America) Andersen's sons were named Pedersen." In handwritten notes, Dora Martin identified that Andrew was one of six sons and two daughters. However, in Dora Martin's diary and accompanying pictures, Dora refers to Uncle Andersen as "dad's brother" but she did not list him as one of the actual brothers. From the Effingham Record-Democrat Newspaper -- In October 1913, Andrew and eldest daughter Dora began a journey back to Denmark to be with Andrew's family following his mother's death in August 1913. The local newspaper published a series of articles about the adventure. The first is as follows: Taking European Trip: A. Peterson and his Daughter, Mrs. Dora Trapp, Going to Denmark -- "The first of this week A. Peterson, of Gilmore, and his daughter, Mrs. Dora Trapp of this city left on a trip to Europe where they will spend the winter on a visit to Mr. Peterson's old home in Denmark (spelled "Danmark" in the article). They left here for Chicago where they will spend a few days on a visit to relatives and friends and from there go to New York City from where they will sail November 1st on the new American Hamburg line's steamer, the Imperator, for Hamburg. From there they will go by rail to Blokhus, via Aabybro, Denmark, where his aged father and six brothers and two sisters are still living. His mother died on the 24th of August this year. Just forty-four years ago Mr. Peterson left Denmark and came to this country. He sailed from Copenhagen on October 1st and landed in Quebec, Canada, two weeks later. From there he went direct to Chicago and then down on the Illinois Central to Effingham. From here he went to Gilmore and joined the Danish settlement at that place. Mr. Peterson is the last of that settlement in the Gilmore neighborhood. His father, in Denmark, has been captain of a life-saving crew on the sea coast for many years, and also owned a large farm which he operated until his advanced age of ninety years prevented him from further active work. This will no doubt be the finest trip, back to his old home in the old country that Mr. Peterson has ever taken. He and his daughter, Mrs. Trapp, will remain there visiting relatives and friends until next April. This Record-Democrat will publish letters from them periodically. Of course the weekly Democrat will follow them over to Denmark to keep them posted on what's going on back home in the good old U.S. From handwritten notes made by Andrea (Siddens) Calhoun, granddaughter: Altamont couple Married 60 Years: Altamont, 1932-- Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Peterson celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary, October 13, at their home, with a reception and dinner for their relatives and friends. Eighty six were present. Mr. Peterson was born in Denmark in 1849, coming to America at the age of 21 years. Mrs. Peterson was born in Chicago in 1858. At the age of three, she came with her parents to the Gilmore vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson were married in Effingham, October 13, 1872. There is only one living witness to the marriage, Louis Assmuson, of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson were the parents of 11 children, five of whom are living, namely John Peterson of Jackson township; Mrs. Dora Martin of Altamont; Mrs. Sophia Ohlson of Chicago; Henry at home; and Mrs. Lillian Siddens of Gilmore. There are four grandchildren. Andrew Peterson Dies: Andrew Peterson was born at Blokhus, Denmark, August 31, 1849, and departed this life July 18, 1935, aged 85 years, 10 months and 18 days. He was the oldest son of Pedar Jager Peterson and Marie Madsen. At the age of 20 he came to America, and after landing in New York, he went to Michigan, where he worked at various jobs until 1871 when he came to Effingham count, settling in West township, where he has resided ever since. He was married to Sena Johnson on October 13, 1872. In 1932 they celebrated the 60th anniversary of their wedding, they being the oldest married couple in the county. To this union was born eleven children, four dying in infancy, namely Amanda, Ella, Freddy and Eddy (twins), and George at the age of 13, Anna at the age of 35. He leaves to mourn their loss his loving wife and fine children, as follows: John C. Peterson of Jackson Township, Effingham county; Dora Martin of Lincoln, Illinois; Sophia Ohlson of Chicago, Illinois; Lillian Siddens of West township, Effingham county; and Henry at home; also five grandchildren, four brothers and one sister living in Denmark, and many nieces and nephews. Mr. Peterson was one of the most substantial farmers of Effingham county, an extra good citizen and friend long to be remembered with many fond recollections. In his death the county has lost one of its finest characters and most prominent old settlers. Could that Effingham county be blessed with more such good men as Andrew Peterson. ``One by one each home is broken, sadly does the vacant chair tell a tale with words unspoken, that death's icy hand was there. No more in our home will we see his noble face and yet there is no other who can fill the vacant place. God in his wisdom has recalled; A boon his love has given, although the body slumbers, the soul is safe in heaven.'' Funeral services were held at Asbury Chapel, Saturday at 2:00 p.m., by Reverend B. F. Mahon, assisted by Reverend Weaver of St. Elmo. Burial was in Mahon cemetery. The flower girls were: Oma Wharton, Emma Koss, Beulah Stein, Naoma and Ruth Mahon. The pall bearers were: Andy Kavanaugh, Bud Wharton, Ferd Kruger, Herman Leppin, Glen Hooks, and Frank Koss. Card of Thanks: We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father. For the beautiful floral offerings, and to all who assisted in any way. Mrs. A. Peterson and children.

More About Sena Andrea Marie Johnson:

Burial: 06 Aug 1939 in Mahon Cemetery, Gilmore, Effingham County, IL

Notes for Sena Andrea Marie Johnson:

FAGM #100497858, with tombstone picture -- In 1862 Sena moved, with her parents, from Chicago, Illinois to Effingham Count y, West Township, Gilmore, Illinois. Her tombstone incorrectly identifies her first name as "Sane" instead of "Sena." On the Illinois Statewide Marriage Index, Sena is identified as Adnes S. Johnson and Andrew is identified as Anders Peterson. From handwritten notes made by daughter Dora (Peterson) Trapp-Martin: Sena Andrea Marie Johnson was born in Chicago, Illinois on June 4, 1858, and died in Gilmore, Illinois on August 4, 1939; she married Andrew on May 13, 1872, in Effingham, Illinois. In 1932, at their 60th wedding anniversary, Andrew and Sena were the oldest living married couple in Effingham County, and one witness from the wedding, Louis Assmuson of Chicago, was present at the 60th anniversary celebration. Both Andrew and Sena are buried in the Mahon Cemetery, up the hill about 100 yards. Sena was the daughter of John Christian Johnson and Marie Andrea (Anderson) Johnson of Chicago, Illinois. Her mother was born in Blokhus, Denmark. Her father, John Christian Johnson was born in or near Blokhus, Denmark, and he and a brother were left as orphans at an early age. The brother died. John was either adopted or raised by a family named Michelsen by which name he was known by until he came to America. Before coming to America, John served as a captain in the war between Denmark and England, on St. Thomas Island. John then came to America with his wife Marie Anderson and 9-year old son Soren in 1856. They arrived in New Orleans and traveled up the Mississippi River to St. Louis and then on to Chicago, "which was just a little village at that time." In Chicago, John bought 40 acres and farmed it. In 1862, John, Marie, Soren, and Sena moved to Effingham County, West Township, where they bought 80 acres and farmed it. Also, according to Dora, "grandpa's real name was Jensen, pronounced with a 'Y,' and was changed to Johnson when he came to Effingham to record the deed for the farm--and that is that"). John died 10 years later in late July/early August of 1872 and Marie died in late January/early February 1873. Sena's brother Soren married Bertha (Bessie) Lawson in Effingham, Illinois, in 1874, and had seven children: Hattie who married Frank Hardin and had one son named Bert; Arthur who died young; Louis who married and had one daughter; Harry who married and had one daughter; Julius who married and had three children; Clarence who married and had one son; and Lutie who married Warren Conner and had a son and a daughter. Harry and Julius and possibly Clarence -- with financial help from Louis -- formed Johnson Brothers Outdoor Motors Company of Terre Haute, Indiana, and built and flew the first American monoplane during 1911-1913 and gave the monoplane to the Smithsonian Institution in Air and Space Museum in 1959 for display. The Andrew Peterson family attended Asbury Church in Gilmore, Illinois. Dora said "Asbury Church was just a plain building with two steps to enter. Inside, a chimney was built in the center of the church with a pot-bellied stove kept hot. If you got too close, you would get scorched clothes. The pulpit had a tall desk within where the Bible was kept, and all records were kept in the Bible. When a new generation took over, they got a new Bible. The old one was given to Norman Millington, to care for it. When Norm died, his wife Lou gave it to mother -- Mrs. A. Peterson. After she had it some time, she turned it over to Sylvester Spragg. At that time he was living with his daughter, Sude Pfister. When their house burned, the Bible burned too. So, the records were lost too. When the next generation came, they made modern improvements. They had no musical instruments until about 1913 or 1914, when they purchased an organ. I don't remember who was the first to play it since I was not there. We used to have ice cream sales to make money to pay for our improvements. The church had a creek, west and south, with trees and shrubbery. Also, on the east was a hitching post. At most meetings, they were all occupied with horses hitched to all kinds of vehicles: farm wagons, spring wagons, buggies, carts, and horse-back horses. A few names of charter members: Dave Shoemaker, William and Tom Hollis, Spragg, Stiffler, Murphy, Johnson, Peterson. Matt Hooks didn't come until 1885. I think I'd better sign off, wishing you all a joyful day, Dora." From handwritten notes made by granddaughter Andrea (Siddens) Calhoun: Sena Andrea Marie (Johnson) Peterson Dies: Sena Andrea Marie Johnson was born in Chicago, Illinois, June 4, 1858, and departed this life August 4, 1939, aged 81 years and 2 months. She was the daughter of Peter Johnson and Andes Andrea Marie Anderson. At the age of 4 years she, with her parents, came to Effingham County, West township, where she had resided ever since. On October 13, 1872, she was united in marriage to Andrew Peterson. To this union were born eleven children, four dying in infancy, and George at the age of 13 and Anna at the age of 35. She leaves to mourn her loss five children, namely: John C. Peterson, Windsor, Illinois; Dora Martin, Lincoln, Illinois; Sophia Ohlson, Chicago; Lillian Siddens, West township, and Henry at home. Two grandsons, Harry Ohlson and Raymond Martin, and three granddaughters, Andrea, Vera, and Oma Siddens, and one great granddaughter, Florence Ohlson, nieces and nephews and numerous friends and neighbors also mourn her passing. "Dear mother, thou hast left us, thy sufferings are now o'er; In heaven you are rejoicing with the dear ones gone before. At the dear old home no longer can we gather, as of old, For our family tie is broken; she has found the heavenly fold. We have lost our darling mother; she has bid us all adieu; She has gone to live in heaven and her person is lost to view. We stand before your casket, smooth back your lovely hair, Upon your marble forehead, we leave the last kiss there. Your busy hands are resting, your work on earth is done; Your trials all are ended, your heavenly crown is won. Tomorrow will bring back sad memories of one we lay to rest, But the ones who think of you today are the ones who love you best. You have gone away dear mother to your Savior good and true, You have won the heavenly glory which for your children is yet to do." Funeral Services: Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, August 6 at Asbury Chapel, conducted by Reverend Smith of St. Elmo, assisted by Reverend B.

Notes for Anna (Annie) Elizabeth Peterson:

FAGM #146099223 -- Died in her parent's home in Gilmore, Illinois From the obituary provided by Andrea (Siddens) Calhoun, great niece: Mrs. William Huffman (Annie Peterson) Dies: Annie Elizabeth Peterson, daughter of Andrew and Sena (spelled ``Cenia`` in the obituary) Peterson, was born near Gilmore, West Township, Effingham county, Illinois, January 25th, 1876, and departed this life at the home of her parents, April 11th, 1910, aged 34 years, 2 months, and 16 days. Annie was converted and united with the Methodist Church at Asbury in January, 1893, and has lived a devoted Christian life. She was married to William W. Huffman, August 17th, 1905. She leaves a husband, father, mother, 3 sisters, and 2 brothers. Those not living here are Mrs. Dora Trapp of Effingham; Mrs. Sophia Ohlson of Chicago; John Peterson of Purman, Missouri. The family were all with her at the last except Sophia and John, who had been here and returned home. Other relatives present were Elmer Trapp of Effingham, and Soren Johnson of Terre Haute, Indiana. Annie will be greatly missed by her relatives and friends, as she was always kind and thoughtful of others, ever ready to speak a word for Jesus, always at her place in Sunday School, when her health would permit. Many times does the writer remember of her being the first to go to the woods in the early Spring and gather wild flowers to bring to the Sunday School room. She has been a great sufferer for more than a year, but was patient and gave evidence of her faith in Christ, often talking of her hope beyond the grave. She said she was ready to go and resigned to his will. ``Calm on the bosom of thy God young spirit, rest thee now, e'en while with us thy footsteps trod, his soul was on thy brow.`` N. H. Millington. The funeral was conducted on Tuesday morning at Asbury Chapel by Reverend C. E. Bovard, of Mason, assisted by Reverend N. H. Millington, of Welton. The remains were interred in the New Hope cemetery. At the dear old home no longer can we gather as of old, For our family tie is broken; she has found the heavenly fold. We have lost our darling mother, she has bid us all adieu; She has gone to live in heaven and her person is lost to view. We stand before your casket, smooth back your lovely hair; Upon your marble forehead, we leave the last kiss there. Your busy hands are resting, your work on earth is done; Your trials all are ended, your heavenly crown is won. Tomorrow will bring sad memories of one we lay to rest. But the ones who think of you today, are the ones who loved you best. You have gone away dear Mother, to your Savior good and true; You have won the heavenly glory, which for your children is yet to do.'' Notes for Oma Lillian Siddens:

When mom (Oma) was born, her mother (grandma Lillian) had not yet settled on a name. While on a telephone party-line with a group of neighbors who all had access to each other's conversations, Lillian's mother (great grandma Sena) said to Jessie Wharton (George's wife) that Jessie's daughter (Oma Bernice) who was born 23 years earlier on the same day as mom now had a namesake. Thus, Lillian felt compelled to use the name "Oma" rather than her original frontrunner name of "Glenna Evelyn" that was disfavored once Lillian's brother-in-law Donald ("Tidd") named his horse "Evelyn" at that same time. Grandma Lillian went with the name Oma instead of Glenna Evelyn.

Notes for Steven Roy Cupo:

FAGM #145603069, with tombstone picture -- Although Steven is not yet deceased, Steven wanted to ensure that his headstone matched the headstones of the three relatives that he will be buried near, most particularly his grandmother, Helen Smith. Steven's burial plot came about because Roy and Helen Smith purchased a four-top on sale in 1963; thinking they and one of their daughters and husband would be buried in the four plots. Unfortunately, Helen's older brother died young with no funds or spouse to cover full burial costs. Thus, Helen had her brother John buried in the third unassigned plot. Upon Roy's and Helen's deaths, their middle daughter, Shirley LeFevre, inherited the unassigned fourth plot. However, since she was going to be buried next to her first husband, Pete, she did not want or need it. Steven asked his Aunt Shirley if he could have the fourth unassigned plot. Aunt Shirley said yes and immediately sent the deed. Steven then Googled headstone makers in Schenectady, NY, contacted one and asked if they could duplicate the existing headstone design. Even after Steven sent the design information, they sent a representative to Viewland Cemetery to take their own measurements. Being that the headstone was standard in design, they had no trouble matching the existing headstones of the three relatives already buried. Steven commissioned the headstone and, upon completion, had it placed on the empty plot in 2009. Steven's spouse Daniel has requested to be cremated, leaving Steven with an opportunity to be buried with loved ones.

Brayden James Schnarre April 23, 2008 12:59 PM 6 lbs. 11 oz., 20 inches Hi Everyone, If you haven't heard by now, little Brayden arrived a few weeks early. He surprised us last Wednesday. I had some very irregular contractions throughout the night and didn't even realize I was in labor. We called my Dr's office when they opened Wed. morning and they had me come in to do a non-stress test to see if I was in labor. Things went quick from there. I was admitted to the hospital at 10:46am and a little over two hours later he arrived. We were released from the hospital Friday afternoon and are now enjoying our time at home after getting settled. He had a minor case of jaundice and had a Wallaby blanket for a few days, which we were able to stop using today. [Wmf:7620 x 2540]He is such a sweet little guy and he truly has daddy and I wrapped around his finger. I enclosed a few pics for everyone. I could send more, so if anyone is interested just let me know. If anyone is in the area, call and we would love to have you meet our new addition.
