Generation 1

1. GIOVANNI<sup>1</sup> CUPO was born in Jun 1862 in Palermo, Palermo, Sicilia, Italy. He died about 1915 in New York, USA. He married Fioritta (Florence; Maria; Mary; Freda) Riccardi on 24 Jan 1892 in Jersey City, Hudson County, NJ. She was born in 1874 in Palermo, Palermo, Sicilia, Italy. She died in 1936.

Notes for Giovanni Cupo:

Giovanni (John) was also known by grandson Everard Cupo as Giovanni Giuseppe (John Joseph) Cupo. John died of alcoholism at a young age, possibly around 1915 while Everard's father was in his early teens. It is not known where he died or was buried. Through the US Census, John was listed as a blackboot (shoe shiner) in 1900, an electrician in 1908, By 1918, Florence was listed as a widow in the Schenectady phone book, and by 1929 Florence was listed as widow to Joseph St. John. Based on research by Great-Great Grandson Jeffrey Cupo, the Holy Rosary Church records identify the marriage date as January 24, 1892. This is opposed to the date of January 7, 1892, contained in other non-verified records. It could be that there was a marriage ceremony earlier in Jersey City, NJ followed later by a church wedding. Regardless, the marriage date is changed to January 24, 1892, based on documented direct family research.

William Cupo, Julia and her husband, and Anna and her husband and son were listed as living with her in Schenectady, NY. Riccardi is believed to be her maiden name because Everard Cupo remembers driving with his parents to visit his father's uncle (brother to Florence) who was a Riccardi living in Secaucus, NJ, and walking out to the beach to see the Statue of Liberty.

Notes for Steven Roy Cupo:

FAGM #145603069, with tombstone picture -- Although Steven is not yet deceased, Steven wanted to ensure that his headstone matched the headstones of the three relatives that he will be buried near, most particularly his grandmother, Helen Smith. Steven's burial plot came about because Roy and Helen Smith purchased a four-top on sale in 1963; thinking they and one of their daughters and husband would be buried in the four plots. Unfortunately, Helen's older brother died young with no funds or spouse to cover full burial costs. Thus, Helen had her brother John buried in the third unassigned plot. Upon Roy's and Helen's deaths, their middle daughter, Shirley LeFevre, inherited the unassigned fourth plot. However, since she was going to be buried next to her first husband, Pete, she did not want or need it. Steven asked his Aunt Shirley if he could have the fourth unassigned plot. Aunt Shirley said yes and immediately sent the deed. Steven then Googled headstone makers in Schenectady, NY, contacted one and asked if they could duplicate the existing headstone design. Even after Steven sent the design information, they sent a representative to Viewland Cemetery to take their own measurements. Being that the headstone was standard in design, they had no trouble matching the existing headstones of the three relatives already buried. Steven commissioned the headstone and, upon completion, had it placed on the empty plot in 2009. Steven's spouse Daniel has requested to be
