According to the Vandalia Union Newspaper, Stewardson Clipper, March 12, 1919, the following article was submitted by Cathy Heiden and retyped word-for-word, including incorrect spellings -- "Woman Petrified -- Dr. Billie Smith of St. Elmo had the body of his first wife exhumed a few days ago for re-interment in the St. Elmo Cemetery. Undertaker Blizzard had charge of the disinterment of the body that was buried in the Stine Cemetery in Wheatland Township. When he and his assistant dug into the grave they found the box completely rotted away but the casket in a very good state of preservation. When they went to raise the casket they found it so heavy they had to get assistance. When the casket was finally raised and opened the body was found to have been completely petrified, or turned to stone. It is said by the undertaker, the relatives and others who saw it, that the form and features were as natural as could be, even to being a flesh color, but it was solid rock and weighed about 500 pounds. The deceased was Miss Louisa Dunbar of Wheatland Township before her marriage to Billie Smith. They lived on a farm in West Township in Effingham County when she died 12 years ago with measles. The body at that time was taken to the cemetery near her old home for interment. Mr. Smith recently decided to have the body taken up and removed to the Maplewood Cemetery at St. Elmo where the grave could be better looked after."

FAGM #143626636, with tombstone picture --

Notes for Oma Lillian Siddens:

When mom (Oma) was born, her mother (grandma Lillian) had not yet settled on a name. While on a telephone party-line with a group of neighbors who all had access to each other's conversations, Lillian's mother (great grandma Sena) said to Jessie Wharton (George's wife) that Jessie's daughter (Oma Bernice) who was born 23 years earlier on the same day as mom now had a namesake. Thus, Lillian felt compelled to use the name "Oma" rather than her original frontrunner name of "Glenna Evelyn" that was disfavored once Lillian's brother-in-law Donald ("Tidd") named his horse "Evelyn" at that same time. Grandma Lillian went with the name Oma instead of Glenna Evelyn.

domestic partnership license was issued on 1/8/2007 in Washington, DC. Their marriage license was issued on 9/2/2014.

Notes for Steven Roy Cupo:

FAGM #145603069, with tombstone picture -- Although Steven is not yet deceased, Steven wanted to ensure that his headstone matched the headstones of the three relatives that he will be buried near, most particularly his grandmother, Helen Smith. Steven's burial plot came about because Roy and Helen Smith purchased a four-top on sale in 1963; thinking they and one of their daughters and husband would be buried in the four plots. Unfortunately, Helen's older brother died young with no funds or spouse to cover full burial costs. Thus, Helen had her brother John buried in the third unassigned plot. Upon Roy's and Helen's deaths, their middle daughter, Shirley LeFevre, inherited the unassigned fourth plot. However, since she was going to be buried next to her first husband, Pete, she did not want or need it. Steven asked his Aunt Shirley if he could have the fourth unassigned plot. Aunt Shirley said yes and immediately sent the deed. Steven then Googled headstone makers in Schenectady, NY, contacted one and asked if they could duplicate the existing headstone design. Even after Steven sent the design information, they sent a representative to Viewland Cemetery to take their own measurements. Being that the headstone was standard in design, they had no trouble matching the existing headstones of the three relatives already buried. Steven commissioned the headstone and, upon completion, had it placed on the empty plot in 2009. Steven's spouse Daniel has requested to be cremated, leaving Steven with an opportunity to be buried with loved ones.

I had some very irregular contractions throughout the night and didn't even realize I was in labor. We called my Dr's office when they opened Wed. morning and they had me come in to do a non-stress test to see if I was in labor. Things went quick from there. I was admitted to the hospital at 10:46am and a little over two hours later he arrived. We were released from the hospital Friday afternoon and are now enjoying our time at home after getting settled. He had a minor case of jaundice and had a Wallaby blanket for a few days, which we were able to stop using today. [Wmf:7620 x 2540]He is such a sweet little guy and he truly has daddy and I wrapped around his finger. I enclosed a few pics for everyone. I could send more, so if anyone is interested just let me know. If anyone is in the area, call and we would love to have you meet our new addition.
