FAGM #143626636, with tombstone picture --

Notes for Oma Lillian Siddens:

When mom (Oma) was born, her mother (grandma Lillian) had not yet settled on a name. While on a telephone party-line with a group of neighbors who all had access to each other's conversations, Lillian's mother (great grandma Sena) said to Jessie Wharton (George's wife) that Jessie's daughter (Oma Bernice) who was born 23 years earlier on the same day as mom now had a namesake. Thus, Lillian felt compelled to use the name "Oma" rather than her original frontrunner name of "Glenna Evelyn" that was disfavored once Lillian's brother-in-law Donald ("Tidd") named his horse "Evelyn" at that same time. Grandma Lillian went with the name Oma instead of Glenna Evelyn.

Carroll Lee Engeljohn and Oma Lillian Siddens had the following children:

- 157. i. DEBRA JEAN⁶ ENGELJOHN (daughter of Carroll Lee Engeljohn and Oma Lillian Siddens) was born on 05 Oct 1953 in St. Elmo, Fayette County, IL. Steven and Dan became a couple on 2/14/1990 in Washington, DC. Their domestic partnership license was issued on 1/8/2007 in Washington, DC. Their marriage license was issued on 9/2/2014.

Notes for Steven Roy Cupo:

FAGM #145603069, with tombstone picture -- Although Steven is not yet deceased, Steven wanted to ensure that his headstone matched the headstones of the three relatives that he will be buried near, most particularly his grandmother, Helen Smith. Steven's burial plot came about because Roy and Helen Smith purchased a four-top on sale in 1963; thinking they and one of their daughters and husband would be buried in the four plots. Unfortunately, Helen's older brother died young with no funds or spouse to cover full burial costs. Thus, Helen had her brother John buried in the third unassigned plot. Upon Roy's and Helen's deaths, their middle daughter, Shirley LeFevre, inherited the unassigned fourth plot. However, since she was going to be buried next to her first husband, Pete, she did not want or need it. Steven asked his Aunt Shirley if he could have the fourth unassigned plot. Aunt Shirley said yes and immediately sent the deed. Steven then Googled headstone makers in Schenectady, NY, contacted one and asked if they could duplicate the existing headstone design. Even after Steven sent the design information, they sent a representative to Viewland Cemetery to take their own measurements. Being that the headstone was standard in design, they had no trouble matching the existing headstones of the three relatives already buried. Steven commissioned the headstone and, upon completion, had it placed on the empty plot in 2009. Steven's spouse Daniel has requested to be cremated, leaving Steven with an opportunity to be buried with loved ones.

Brayden James Schnarre April 23, 2008 12:59 PM 6 lbs. 11 oz., 20 inches Hi Everyone, If you haven't heard by now, little Brayden arrived a few weeks early. He surprised us last Wednesday. I had some very irregular contractions throughout the night and didn't even realize I was in labor. We called my Dr's office when they opened Wed. morning and they had me come in to do a non-stress test to see if I was in labor. Things went quick from there. I was admitted to the hospital at 10:46am and a little over two hours later he arrived. We were released from the hospital Friday afternoon and are now enjoying our time at home after getting settled. He had a minor case of jaundice and had a Wallaby blanket for a few days, which we were able to stop using today. [Wmf:7620 x 2540]He is such a sweet little guy and he truly has daddy and I wrapped around his finger. I enclosed a few pics for everyone. I could send more, so if anyone is interested just let me know. If anyone is in the area, call and we would love to have you meet our new addition.
