Notes for Anne Agnes (Anna) Lempka:

FAGM #58655466, with tombstone picture --According to her father's naturalization document, he lists her as Annabelle" and this could be the genesis of her being called "Aunt Anna" by relatives. Anne was a waitress at the Dixie Diner in Middletown, NY, for several years. Every night when she returned from work, she would count the coins she received from tips. There were times when Peggy (daughter) wished she would give the daughters some of those coins. Talk about a GREAT cook -- Anne was the best. Remembering many years back when eating meat on Friday was a sin, there always were potato pancakes for supper. Peggy can still see mother (Anne) grating those potatoes and onions and the daughters waiting for the small piece of potato that couldn't be grated so the daughters could eat a raw potato. They were the greatest! After the daughters were married, Anne continued to cook enough for a full family. Always, there was enough to give to the daughters living nearby (Marilyn and Jim, and Peggy and Walt). Poor Barbara lived too far away and lost out on the free food. Desserts were a speciality for Anne, especially her apple dumplings, carrot cake and everything else she baked. She was always trying new recipes. During the Christmas holidays there were cookies galore, homemade sweetbread, mulligan, kurishcizki (sp?) and more. During the fifties, Anne and husband opened a small luncheonette in Pine Island (Annie's Luncheonette), which they ran for two years. This being a full-time job, seven days a week, did not leave mcu time for a home life. Husband Stephen continued to work at Nu-Car Carries, but pitched in on weekends. This was a profitable venture for them. Anne was known for her family get-togethers in the summer. She would plan/prepare weeks in advance expecting the daughes and sons-in-law to help. In the end, the family gatherings were great. Everyone enjoyed being together and eating great food. Anne and

Ruth Marion Smith had the following child:

- i. RICHARD CHARLES<sup>4</sup> SMITH (son of Ruth Marion Smith) was born about Aug 1951 in Albany, Albany County, NY (Brady Children's Home - Brady Hospital - Albany Medical Center).

Notes for Richard Charles Smith:

NOTE: This entry reflects a personal communication between Steven Cupo (brother to Richard) and his mother (Ruth Marion [Smith] Cupo) that was recorded as a handwritten note by Steven in his daily journal on 3/199

- Richard Charles Smith
- Born out of wedlock in August or late summer 1951 at Brady Children's Home/Brady Hospital in Albany, NY
- Richard was born with a tumor on his intestine
- Richard's father was a 70 year old orderly in the psychiatric ward of possibly Ellis Hospital or Sunnyview Hospital in Schenectady, NY, where Ruth was a nurse
- Richard's father was possibly later killed by a patient
- Late in Ruth's pregnancy, she was sent to live with her mother's younger sister (Leocadia -- Louise-- Winchester and her husband Ward) at their bed-and-breakfast in New Hampshire
- Richard was adopted by a family possibly in Canajoharie, NY, in late 1951/early 1952
- Roy Smith (Ruth's father) paid for Richard's operation to remove the tumor but, as a consequence, Roy required Ruth to remain in the nursing profession when she had expressed a desire to become an English teacher
- Within the next year, Ruth married Everard Cupo in July 1952.

Everard Nicholas Cupo and Ruth Marion Smith had the following children:

10.
  - i. JOHN JOSEPH<sup>4</sup> CUPO (son of Everard Nicholas Cupo and Ruth Marion Smith) was born on 28 Apr 1953 in Schenectady County, NY.   - ii. STEVEN ROY CUPO (son of Everard Nicholas Cupo and Ruth Marion Smith) was born on 17 Aug 1954 in Schenectady, New York. He married DANIEL LEE ENGELJOHN (son of Carroll Lee Engeljohn and Oma Lillian Siddens). He was born on 05 Sep 1955 in St Elmo, Fayette County, IL.

Notes for Steven Roy Cupo:

FAGM #145603069, with tombstone picture -- Although Steven is not yet deceased, Steven wanted to ensure that his headstone matched the headstones of the three relatives that he will be buried near, most particularly his grandmother, Helen Smith. Steven's burial plot came about because Roy and Helen Smith purchased a four-top on sale in 1963; thinking they and one of their daughters and husband would be buried in the four plots. Unfortunately, Helen's older brother died young with no funds or spouse to cover full burial costs. Thus, Helen had her brother John buried in the third unassigned plot. Upon Roy's and Helen's deaths, their middle daughter, Shirley LeFevre, inherited the unassigned fourth plot. However, since she was going to be buried next to her first husband, Pete, she did not want or need it. Steven asked his Aunt Shirley if he could have the fourth unassigned plot. Aunt Shirley said yes and immediately sent the deed. Steven then Googled headstone makers in Schenectady, NY, contacted one and asked if they could duplicate the existing headstone design. Even after Steven sent the design information, they sent a representative to Viewland Cemetery to take their own measurements. Being that the headstone was standard in design, they had no trouble matching the existing headstones of the three relatives already buried. Steven commissioned the headstone and, upon completion, had it placed on the empty plot in 2009. Steven's spouse Daniel has requested to be cremated, leaving Steven with an opportunity to be buried with loved ones.

Notes for Daniel Lee Engeljohn:

Steven and Dan became a couple on 2/14/1990 in Washington, DC. Their domestic partnership license was issued on 1/8/2007 in Washington, DC. Their marriage license was issued on 9/2/2014.
